

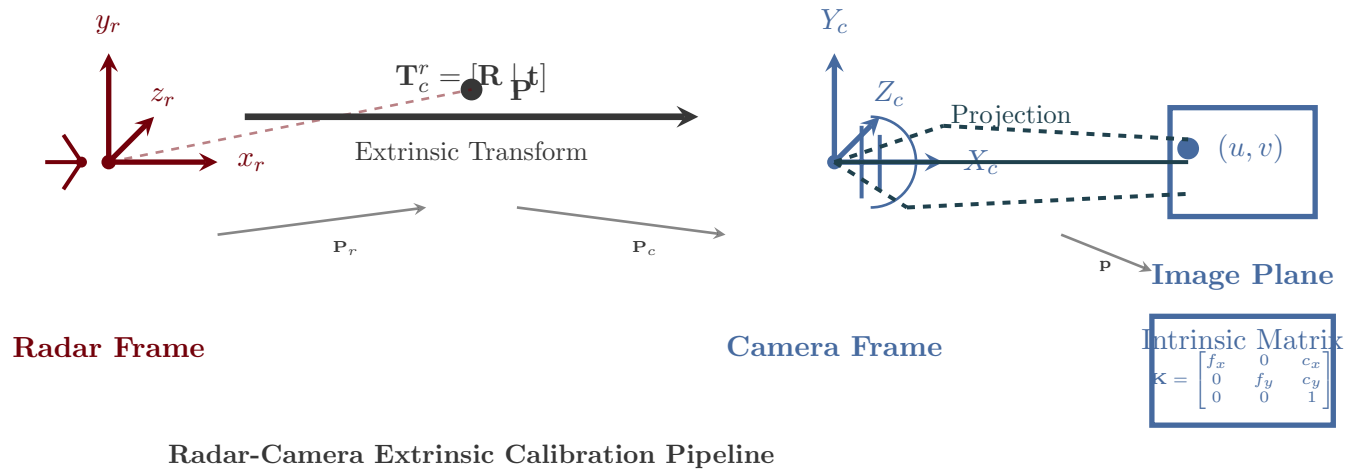

Figure 1: Geometric relationship between radar and camera coordinate frames. The extrinsic transformation $\mathbf{T}_c^r$ maps points from radar coordinates to camera coordinates, which are then projected onto the image plane via the intrinsic matrix $\mathbf{K}$.